

Propane Regulator Info

We have had some customers experience weak flame on the stove and or the heater not staying lit, this is possibly due to your elevation.

We set all propane regulators to 11" water column here at the factory, this can be adjusted for your elevation.

Once you have checked the system IE: the tank valve is fully open to provide proper supply

This adjustment can be preformed by a certified propane shop.

Overland Explorer Vehicles